

Knights Choir performs at St. Kevin's Christmas Concert

Christmas Lights put up at St. Kevin's Parish

Five brother knights worked from 9:30am until 3:30pm with a short lunch break on Saturday, November 29, 2008, installing the exterior Christmas lights at St. Kevin's Parish. Seven sets of white lights were used to create the Christmas tree formation on each side of the main entrance while a set of colored lights was wrapped around each of the eight emerald cedar trees lining the forecourt of the church. The first three entries in the parol competition were hung from the balcony inside the church on Sunday, November 30, 2008.

Knights of Columbus Council No. 13881 organized a choir to participate in the Christmas concert at St. Kevin's Parish on Saturday, November 29, 2008. Eight brother knights, eight sisters, and one squire, under the direction of SK Peter Araneta and accompanied by brothers Herminio Crisostomo and Father Jessie Dimafilis on guitar, sang three Christmas carols, Pilipino Krismas Medley, O Holy Night and Feliz Navidad. Squire Janessa Oriel played the role of an angel and SK Peter Araneta sang the solo during the rendition of O Holy Night.
